Have you ever feared to stay anchored out with guests on board?

Have you ever dreamed of getting easily into the harbour even with short-notice, docking safe assisted by skilled seamen on pilot boats and finally switching-off your engines to use shore-power?

Today Mansueto Group is able to make your dreams come true.

A strong management system developed in collaboration with Portosole Sanremo Marina and the new Porto Turistico di Imperia gives you the opportunity to reserve your berth in any period of the year without having headaches.

Imperia Oneglia

With regards to the new marina of Imperia Mansueto will ensure you the same kind of treatment thanks to the agreements reached with Porto di Imperia Spa and also by taking advantages of company Tarquinio Giribaldi takeover.

In fact Tarquinio Giribaldi, a Registered Maritime and Customs Agency since 1822, is definitively an integral part of Mansueto Group and the united efforts of the two companies will enable you not only to get a berth either in Sanremo or Imperia but also to get all the right papers for your arrival/departure procedures and custom formalities in all the other ports around the Riviera Coast.
